

K-love radio is very important to me here in Tecumseh. I have listened to Christian radio for 20- years. I just barely get K-love in this small rural town and know that if there is a change to broadcasting this station on Low Power FM I will not be able to receive this station anymore. This station also provides us with information about local activities, concerts and good clean music.